

CASA PALMERA

Grape variety : Rosé de Syrah

Production area : Central Valley

Country of origin : Chile

Suitable temperature : 10 -12°C

Range : Varietal

Wine type : Semi Sweet

Net content : 750ml

Tasting Notes:

Appearance: Luminous, striking shade of pink.

Nose: Delicately fragrant bouquet of raspberry and cherry, accompanied by a subtle note of mint.

In mouth: Lively and energetic on the tongue, balanced by a gentle acidity; the finish is captivating, adorned with notes of red fruits.

Pairing recommendation: Spicy bbq, seafood or fruit salad, as well as an aperitive or a cooler.

Production Area :

Central Valley

This dynamic region, renowned for its diverse terroirs and exceptional viticultural practices, introduces a new dimension to its winemaking prowess with these exquisite rosé creations. Amidst the undulating landscapes and under the benevolent sun, the Syrah grapes flourish, benefiting from the valley's nurturing microclimates and the skillful touch of dedicated winemakers. The resulting rosé wines mirror the valley's inherent charm, each sip a testament to the harmonious marriage between terroir, grape, and the artistry of the vintner.

CERTIFIED
sustainable C.L.
Wines of Chile

VEGAN

