

VOX DEI

VOX DEI

IN VINO VERITAS, IN SPIRITU LUX

There are places where time holds its breath.
Where matter feels charged, as if it remembers something you've forgotten. From these places, something begins to emerge—not loud, not obvious, but certain.
It doesn't explain itself. It doesn't follow trends.
It speaks in symbols, in texture, in weight.
You don't wear it. You listen to it. You don't own it. You carry it, for a while.
This is the beginning of VOX DEI. Not a brand. A presence.

VOX DEI

From the breath of creation to the quiet rituals of life, VOX DEI is a sacred offering—not made to impress, but to reveal. Born in Chile's Central Valley, where sun-filled days and cooling mountain breezes shape fruit of purity and balance, each wine becomes a reflection of divine intention: shaped by earth, guided by silence, and completed in the hands of the seeker.

We select the most promising juices for patient oak aging, which can span from several months to years. This deliberate approach enhances the depth and complexity of our wines, resulting in a truly exceptional wine experience.

Centennial Inherit Casting of Classics

1880 The early years

In 1880, Jeanne Hélène Pasquier revived the abandoned Domaine des Roches Neuves in the famous wines' region of Saumur in France.

1981 Glorious peak

In 1981, Denis Duveau took the reins of Domaine Duveau, having graduated from the prestigious Bordeaux School of Enology, a significant turning point in the family's winemaking tradition.

1992 New adventure begins

In 1992, Denis Duveau, with his family by his side, embraced a new beginning in Chile, bringing a significant stone to the building of Chilean renowned winemaking of today.

2006 Expansion and heritage

Grégoire Duveau took over the Domaine in 2066, broadening the wine range to meet global markets demands. With more land acquisitions and the introduction of grape varieties like Syrah, Pinot Noir, and Sauvignon Blanc, the estate thrived.

NOW Craftsmanship and modernism

The two elements have seamlessly melded into an evolving tradition at Domaine Duveau. The enduring commitment to blending tradition with modern innovation remains the hallmark of their pursuit in crafting exceptional wines.
